A Moment In Time

Look back over the year; your spirit is caught in these pages. You see yourself, but also the 149 classes before you, filled with girls like yourself. You also see the future, filled with the shadowy figures of future students, girls eager to be shown life. All these women live in you, and you are embodied in them. Stop for a moment and see our spirits caught in these pages, for just this moment in time.

Apple Day

Happy Birthday Mary Baldwin!

Ann Pendelton,
Class of 1992

Our founders, Rufus Bailey and Mary Julia Baldwin, are remembered and celebrated over the weekend closest to October 4, the birthday of Mary Julia Baldwin. Surprisingly, Founders' Day actually occurred on Mary Julia Baldwin's birthday. This special weekend contained activities for the entire college community. Previously, Freshman Parents' Weekend followed Founders' Day. But this year all parents were invited.

Starting at 11:00 am on Friday, Founders' Day convocation kicked off Parent's Weekend. Dr. Nancy Cott, a women's History professor from Yale University, spoke to the newly invested seniors, students, faculty, and parents on the history of women's education. Karen Wood, the Student Government President, was very impressed about the number of seniors in attendence: "The turn-out was excellent!" Senior Megan Smithdeal also noticed the unexpectedly high number of seniors: "I never thought there would be so many seniors that we would run out of gowns."

Following the ceremony, lunch was served on President Tyson's lawn. Yellow and white tents and a live band contributed to make a "very enjoyable afternoon." Throughout the day, students and their parents had a variety of events to attend. The Volleyball team played Roanoke College that evening. Also, Dr. Riley Haws and Dr. Robert Allen performed a piano duet. The Theater put on "Sticky Revelations" and "A Voice of My Own."

On Saturday, Interest Sessions were held in the morning followed by a pig roast for lunch. The Field Hockey team played Salem College that afternoon. A jazz band provided entertainment for a party that evening. The Reverend Patricia Hunt held a worship service on Sunday morning. Throughout the weekend, students enjoyed having their parents in town and took the opportunity to share their favorite restaurants and shops with them.

On the whole, Parents' Weekend was "very successful and memorable."

Lea was born in Alabama. She resided in Scranton, Pennsylvania with her mother and father.

On December 29, 1991, Lea was killed in a severe car accident. Her activities at Mary Baldwin included Varsity Volleyball and Student Senate.

As a freshman, Lea's time at Mary Baldwin College was short lived. However, her contributions will be long remembered.

Julia Cronk Shgart
Midlothian, Virginia
Success is failure turned inside out, the silver tint of the clouds of doubt, and you can never tell how close you are it may seem near when it seems afar. So, stick to the fight when you're hardest hit- Rest if you must- but don't you quit. -Anonymous

Kristin Beth Spencer

You never really leave the people you lover - part of them you take with you, leaving part of you behind. -Anonymous

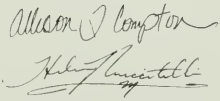
1992 Bluestocking

We would like to dedicate the 1992 Bluestocking to Rick Kranias, Crista Cabe, Marsha Mays, Jen Harris, and to our staff. Thank you Rick, for putting up with all of our quick questions, the late night work sessions, and our inexperience at the tasks set before us. Crista and Marsha - thank you for stepping in and being there for moral support, to solve our problems and for giving us guidance, direction, and leadership we most desperately needed. Jen - thank you for delivering the theme, the responsibilities laid before us, and for helping with the computer. To our wonderful, workaholic staff - it has been a fast and confusing process, but the fun is about to begin.

Sincerely,



Allie and Helen
